QUESTION: Are nursing homes still taking admissions?

ANSWER: Most are, but not all.

QUESTION: If I admit my parent to a nursing home will I be able to visit?

ANSWER: All nursing homes are closed for visitors. Some are allowing one visitor on the first day for 2 hours to help settle your loved one into the home. They are working quickly to make facetime and skype available to residents.

QUESTION: If I have a loved one in the hospital, am I allowed to visit?

ANSWER: Maternity: 1 person is allowed
End of life: 1 person is allowed
Children: 2 guardians are allowed.
If you are the visitor as above, once you leave the patient room you must leave the hospital. No other visitors are allowed. Check in phone calls to staff and phone calls to your loved one are recommended at this time.
